

ELECTION LEAVES HUERTA IN POWER

ONLY 10,000 OF 80,000 ELIGIBLE VOTERS IN MEXICO GO TO THE POLLS.

CATHOLIC PARTY IS IN LEAD

Dictator Will Increase Army to Add to Strength in Next Balloting—Diaz Resigns as Brigadier General of the Army.

Mexico City.—The opera bouffe election in Mexico City leaves Dictator Huerta still ruler of the country—at least until the meager ballots of the people can be counted, which process may require several weeks.

It is believed that a sufficient number not having voted—10,000 out of 80,000—to make the election legal, it will be declared void and Huerta continued in power pending another election.

But Huerta means to become a really truly president, for when he heard the results he made the preparations to at once increase his voting strength by increasing the army. He also will try to speedily call another election.

Will Increase Army. A decree was issued by Huerta increasing the army from 10,000 to 25,000 men to 150,000. Huerta proposed such an increase some time ago, but the congress which he dissolved vetoed this.

No official announcement was made, but it was estimated, judging from the results here, the vote was up to the average, that less than 10,000 of the 80,000 eligible voters in the republic went to the polls.

It would be no surprise if congress, the members of which also were voted for, declared the election void when the body is reorganized and revises the returns.

Diaz in Second Place. The leaders of the Catholic party claimed a long lead, although they were unable to estimate the number of votes polled for their candidates, Federico Gamboa and Gen. Razon.

If this claim is correct it is generally thought that Gen. Felix Diaz and Senor Requena ran second.

The Liberal candidates, Manuel Galero and Flores Kagon, had no printed tickets at the polling places, the constituents being obliged to write their names in blank spaces.

The last thread binding Gen. Felix Diaz and Gen. Huerta was severed when Gen. Diaz telegraphed to the department of war his resignation as brigadier general of the army.

EXPLOSION ENTOMBS 230

ENTIRE DAY SHIFT IN DAWSON, N. M., SHAFT CAUGHT.

Stag Canyon Officials Believe Virtually All Imprisoned Miners Will Escape Death.

Dawson, N. M.—Two hundred and thirty miners were entombed in shaft No. 2 of the Stag Canyon mine by an explosion, according to an unofficial estimate.

The cause of the explosion is unknown. Although smoke is seen issuing from the second level of the shaft, it is believed by rescuers that this is from the explosion and not from fire.

Immediately upon the explosion all shifts were called to the work of rescue, and those miners who were employed in other shafts were put to work drilling through the debris blocking the mine below the second level.

Calls for assistance were issued at once to miners in Trinidad and other mine camps. The United States rescue car, stationed at Trinidad, arrived and rescue cars are being hurried from Denver, Rock Springs, Wyo., and Pittsburg, Kan.

Every available person in Dawson is at the scene of the explosion, aiding in the attempt to reach the miners.

The rescue party is making slow headway against the tons of coal and debris which is blocking the mine. The five men rescued were separated from the main body of miners at the time of the explosion and could tell nothing about it.

WILSON SENDS FIRST VETO

DISAPPROVES JOINT RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS.

Prevents the Reinstatement of Ohio Cadet Who Failed in West Point Examination.

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson sent his first veto to congress. He disapproved a joint resolution to reinstate Adolph Unger of Mansfield, O., as a cadet at West Point. Unger, appointed by Representative Sharp, failed in examinations, after a strenuous effort to succeed and his friends sought another chance for him.

"I regret to do this, but I deem it my duty," wrote the president. "I have the greatest sympathy and admiration for young men like Mr. Unger, who seek, in spite of difficulties, to show their mettle; but I am convinced, upon careful inquiry, that he cannot, with his present preparation, advantageously continue his course at West Point military academy, and that his reinstatement would, in the circumstances, be subversive of the proper discipline of the academy."

LOAN SHARK KING IN PRISON

Owner of 63 Establishments in U. S. Must Serve Six Months on Blackwell's Island.

New York.—Daniel H. Tolman, "king of the loan sharks," who had offices in 63 cities of the United States, must serve six months in jail. Justice Pendleton in the supreme court denied Tolman's appeal. He was convicted Oct. 9 on a charge of usury and sentenced to prison. Tolman has been in the Tombs since his conviction and today was taken to Blackwell's Island. He may appeal to the court of appeals, but must "do time" pending the decision of the high court.

Tolman was convicted on the testimony of Carl Shick, a German university in American laws, who swore that he was forced to pay Tolman a bonus of $5 on a $10 loan for three months. Tolman demanded 12 weekly payments of $1.25 each.

REJECTS VANDERLIP PLAN

PRESIDENT DOES NOT FAVOR SUBSTITUTE BILL.

Committee Expected to Report Currency Measure on Latest Suggestion and Split With House.

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson will stand staunchly by the main features of the house currency bill. He thinks the measure will best serve the business interests of the country.

He does not regard with favor the suggestions for a substitute bill made by Mr. Vanderlip of New York.

As members view the currency situation, it seems certain that the senate committee will report a bill containing the essence of Mr. Vanderlip's suggestions. The prospects, therefore, are that senate and house will be at loggerheads over the question of the final form which the currency bill shall take and that Mr. Wilson's powers of persuasion and his influence as a chief executive will be put to a hard test.

Senator Bristow of Kansas declares that Senators Reed, Hitchcock and O'Gorman, Democrats, and Senator Nelson and himself, Republicans, on the senate committee, had fought all along for a government-controlled central bank with government-controlled branches, and that unless such a bill was reported out of the committee a fight would be made for it on the floor of the senate.

The work of searching for bodies still is going on, but hope that additions to the 23 rescued alive will be made has been abandoned.

The two deaths added to the list were those of rescued men, James Lurdi and William Poisl. The men were members of a rescue squad which entered the mine. They did not return and it was only after the experts of the United States rescue car had searched six hours that the bodies were found.

The house of deputies went on record as opposed to the employment of children under 16 years and demanded "for every child an opportunity for education and recreation."

HADLEY WILL NOT QUIT THE STATE

WOULD RATHER GIVE UP POSITION WITH RAILROADS THAN QUIT MISSOURI.

NEWSPAPERS MISQUOTED HIM

Says He Does Not Even Intend to Temporarily Remove From Kansas City—Contract for Job Paying $25,000 Unsigned.

Jefferson City.—On departing for Chicago, former Gov. Hadley said he had been misunderstood in stating that he might have to give up his citizenship in Missouri and become a resident of Chicago in order to accept the offer from the various railway systems west of the Mississippi river to represent them before the interstate commerce commission for the next five years in the work of the latter in fixing a physical valuation upon such property.

"I do not intend to give up my citizenship in Missouri, or even temporarily remove my home from Kansas City," said the governor, "and this is the reason that I have not so far signed the contract with the railroads, and it is also my reason for going to Chicago."

"If it comes to the point," he said, "where I must either surrender my citizenship in Missouri or the proffer from the railroads, I will forego the latter and still live in Missouri."

His employment by all the railroads west of the Mississippi river to represent them before the interstate commerce commission in the matter of fixing a physical valuation upon this class of property is to cover five years, and it is said that he will be paid not less than $25,000 a year.

The former governor was here inspecting his Cole county farm. He departed later for Chicago to take up with the heads of the railroad departments the question of a removal of his residence to that city. He expressed the hope that arrangements might be made under which he will continue to have his residence in Kansas City.

Convicts to Get Pin Money.

Jefferson City.—Convicts in the Missouri penitentiary hereafter will be allowed 5 per cent of their daily earnings, to be applied toward the payment of dependent relatives or for personal use, under a statute which has been discovered by Attorney General Barker. Forbids Policy Antidating.

Jefferson City.—Superintendent of Insurance Revelle made an order prohibiting the antedating of life insurance policies. It has become a general practice among agents of life companies in the state. Under Superintendent Revelle's order policies must be dated from the time the application is made. The practice of dating policies back has been followed to give applicants the advantage of a lower rate because of age rating. This is discriminatory, Revelle says.

Refuses to Accept Parole.

Jefferson City.—There is once convict in Missouri penitentiary who does not want a parole or pardon. He makes no protestations of innocence—no pleas for executive clemency. He declares he will spend the remainder of his days behind the bars in that institution. This is Simon Begley, who killed his wife in Cedar county nearly 25 years ago. He got a life sentence for the crime and was lodged in Missouri penitentiary October 17, 1892. He has served 23 years, a longer period than any other inmate in the penitentiary. The attention of Gov. Hadley was called to Begley during his administration, and he offered the old convict a holiday parole. Begley spurned the parole, declaring he is happier in the penitentiary than he would be on the outside, where he has neither friends nor relatives.

Advocates Fire Marshal Law.
